

StarTech.com

Making hard-to-find easy!

Business Workforce Briefing

Company History

- Privately owned London based company that has been in business since 1985
- 2 UWO grads began making dust covers and anti glare covers for PC monitors in basement
- Provide hard to find connectivity and technology parts that complete business solutions
- Operations in Canada, US and UK
- Looking toward further European expansion

- Our Competitive Advantages
 - One-stop Source for Hard-to-Find Parts
 - Superior Service/Responsiveness
 - Web Site/On Line Resources

- Young and dynamic workforce that share a passion for customer service and technology
- Fast-paced, entrepreneurial but not at expense of work-family balance
- Creative and leading edge
- Employee engagement a key organizational metric

Skills Requirements

- Committed to promoting from within
- Customer Support and Technical Support
- Balance of business skills, technology expertise but overall passion for customer service
- Wide range of skills from warehouse associates to sales to marketing to finance to information technology

- StarTech.com is committed to compensating employees within the top 1/3 of similar companies within similar geographic area where we have our businesses
- Competitive base salary, bonus plan, comprehensive benefit plan and added “perks”

Recruitment Needs

- Look for people on an ongoing basis to bring into CSD and Tech Support – this is a key “feeder” department for the organization
- Always looking for people with a passion for technology and desire to provide great customer service!

Application Process

- If you think you have what it takes to excite customers, succeed and have fun, why not join our team?
- Submit your resume to recruiting@startech.com we'd love to hear from you!

Questions?

- If you have any further questions about StarTech.com, please feel free to contact Sandra Grant, Human Resources Manager at sandra.grant@startechcom or by calling (519) 455-9675 x1275

Thank you for your time!